Listening Example - Present Progressive for Future: Business Trip Discussion

Ash (Manager): Hi, Emma! I want to talk about our business trip next week. We are leaving for New York on Monday.

Emma (Employee): Oh, that sounds exciting! What time are we leaving?

Ash (Manager): We are leaving at 9 AM. Our flights are booked with ABC Airlines.

Emma (Employee): Great! What are we doing when we arrive in New York?

Ash (Manager): We are having a meeting with the marketing team on the first day. We are going to discuss the new project.

Emma (Employee): That sounds important! What are we doing after the meeting?

Ash (Manager): After the meeting, we are visiting two clients. We are going to show them our ideas.

Emma (Employee): Great! What about the hotel?

Ash (Manager): We are staying at the Grand Hotel. Everything is confirmed.

Emma (Employee): Perfect! What about the last day?

Ash (Manager): On the last day, we are having a final meeting with the clients. Then, we are flying back to the office.

Emma (Employee): Sounds like a busy trip! I'm looking forward to it!

Ash (Manager): Me too! We are going to achieve a lot next week.
